

FRIDAY

FROG FOCUS

Our week at Liberty Middle School was packed with exciting events! We had the incredible opportunity to hear from guest speaker Becky Savage, whose powerful message resonated with us all. The junior leadership team embarked on a memorable trip to Garden City, where they gained valuable leadership skills and experiences. Our school attendance has been impressive, reaching a remarkable 97.6% since the start of the year. The yearbook cover design contest is heating up, with students eagerly casting their votes for their favorite submissions. And finally, the spirit of homecoming is alive and well, with exciting spirit week activities leading up to the big game. It's been an amazing week at LMS, and we're looking forward to what's to come!
